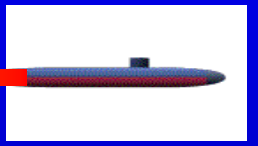
Security Clearance General Requirements

Midshipman Summer Cruises 2013



Minimum Required Clearance

- To go underway on a submarine, at least an Interim SECRET clearance is required.
- In the case of midshipmen, it is the responsibility of the parent command (the midshipman's NROTC unit or USNA) to ensure their midshipmen have the proper clearance in order to perform the required summer training.

Midshipmen Clearance Responsibility

- Total responsibility for obtaining midshipmen security clearances resides with the midshipman’s parent NROTC unit or USNA.
- Midshipmen who arrive without a proper security clearance will not embark on submarines.
- These requirement apply to submarine cruises and CORTRAMID

Clearance Requirements

- The Joint Personnel Adjudication System (JPAS) is the system of record for personnel clearances in the Department of Defense.
- All clearance information for a person visiting a command where they will require access to classified material must be sent via JPAS to the visited command.

Clearance Requirements

- In order to be cleared for access to classified material, a person must have:
  - US Citizenship.
  - A completed investigation with determined eligibility for the desired clearance.
  - Signed/Executed SF-312 Nondisclosure Agreement.
  - Access to the desired level of classification granted.
- OR
  - US Citizenship.
  - Signed/Executed SF-312 Nondisclosure Agreement.
  - An interim clearance of the desired level granted.
- All of the above-listed requirements must be entered into JPAS in order to be valid.

- All personnel in JPAS are assigned one or more categories under which they are or may be granted clearance. The proper category must be displayed in the drop-down box at the top in order to display the proper data.
- Most personnel have multiple categories available. Clearance data taken from the wrong category is NOT VALID.
- NROTC and Merchant Marine Academy midshipmen must have the “ROTC (USN)” category displayed.
- USNA midshipmen must have the “Academy (USN)” category displayed.

- The person must have an “owning” command indicated in the Person Category Information area.
- The owning command is who grants interim or final clearance. If this is blank when the proper category is selected or does not match the school from which the midshipman was sent, the midshipman does not have the proper clearance.
- This block will indicate whether a midshipman is supposed to have their clearance under the “ROTC (USN)” or “Academy (USN)” category.
